DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 12 and 13 recites the limitation "the second memory". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Objections

The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

There is currently no claim 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-3, 5, 8, 9, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by O'Mahony, (US 6,570,911).

As per claims 1-3, 5, 8, 9, and 11, O'Mahony teaches a method for data transfer for use with a data pump, comprising:

establishing a program code for executing a data transfer (modem) function, the function being divided into phases by inactivity intervals, and the program code including code segments associated with each phrase; and downloading each code segment to a first memory of the processor prior to commencement of the respective phase for execution thereof, wherein each successively downloaded segment overwrites a previously downloaded segment. (col. 4, lines 30-col. 7, lines 1-7)

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6 and 10 are allowed. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim.
